

The Commission holds its reconvened 27th session

The reconvened 27th session of CCPCJ, held on 6 and 7 December 2018 in Vienna, was attended by representatives from Member States, UN entities and civil society. The Commission adopted a resolution entitled “Implementation of the budget for the biennium 2018–2019 for the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Fund” and discussed strategic and administrative questions as well as the agenda for the upcoming 28th Commission session in May. At the same session, the Commission considered the proposed draft annual programme implementation plan for 2020 for UNODC. Furthermore, presentations by UNODC and the Government of Japan were made on the steps undertaken in preparation for the 14th UN Crime Congress, to be held from 20 to 27 April 2020 in Kyoto, Japan.

Main theme of 28th CCPCJ session (20-24 May 2019)

In accordance with ECOSOC decision 2016/241, the prominent theme and the topic of the thematic discussion at the upcoming Commission session in May will be “The responsibility of effective, fair, humane and accountable criminal justice systems in prevailing and countering crime motivated by intolerance or discrimination of any kind”.

CCPCJ Resolutions and Decisions online database

A comprehensive database of all resolutions and decisions, adopted by the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (and by the Commission on Narcotic Drugs), has been made available online. The database helps to search for, sort and display resolution/decision details. The search engine is equipped with a number of filters, namely: topic, mandate type, adopting body and year.

Briefing in New York on preparations for the 14th UN Crime Congress

On 4 October, the Secretariat to the Commission held an information briefing in New York on the preparations for the 14th UN Crime Congress, to be held in Kyoto, Japan, in 2020. The topic of the 14th UN Crime Congress is “Advancing crime prevention, criminal justice and the rule of law: towards the achievement of the 2030 Agenda”. Assistant Vice-Minister of Justice of Japan, H.E. Mr. Yamauchi, reported on preparations underway by the host country. Additionally, a video presenting the Congress venue, Kyoto International Conference Centre, was displayed.

14th UN Crime Congress update

Venue

In July 2018, UNODC undertook a planning mission to Kyoto to discuss preparations for the 14th UN Crime Congress with the Government of Japan.
